

With regular high annual snow falls the villages in the Shiga prefecture suffer greatly with 1 – 2 metres of snow lying on the ground. Roads which could be blocked even in the smaller villages have points such as these fitted at regular intervals to allow warm water to trickle down to melt and wash away falling snow. Innovation is everywhere!

